GFSI
CONFERENCE

The GFSI Conference is the annual rendezvous for everyone involved in advancing food safety and consumer trust worldwide, from industry leaders to academics, regulators, grassroots players and beyond. Joining this collaborative conversation, which includes over 1,000 decision-makers from around the world, allows you to:

STAY INFORMED

The industry is constantly evolving in response to shifting trends, consumer demands and emerging technology, and the GFSI Conference can help you keep up. Learn about the latest advancements in science, technology and collaborative tools from innovators at the cutting edge of food safety.

STRENGTHEN YOUR NETWORK

In today's interconnected supply chain, a strong network is an international network. Globalise your connections at the GFSI Conference. Dedicated networking sessions, as well as a delegate-only discussion app, create a space to build new and lasting partnerships.

GAIN VISIBILITY

If you have a solution to a food safety challenge, showcase it at the GFSI Conference. This international platform offers unparalleled opportunities to connect with potential partners. You may be able to assist the world's biggest food companies as they work towards a safer food supply.

LEARN FROM LEADERS

Speakers at the GFSI Conference routinely include renowned experts and academics, CEOs, public authorities and other influential figures in food safety. By attending, you'll have the chance not only to hear these leaders speak but to connect with them one-on-one.

SHARE KNOWLEDGE

Collaborative learning and best-practice sharing form the foundation of GFSI. Tell the world about your best practices for food safety and guide your peers towards their own solutions. You'll gain recognition for your work on a global stage and help recognise the work of others.

MEET PEERS

As you meet your international counterparts in the food industry at the GFSI Conference, you may notice that you share similar concerns. Learn how food safety practitioners from far-flung locales have developed creative solutions to familiar and emerging food safety challenges.

WHAT DELEGATES SAY ABOUT THE GFSI CONFERENCE

- A place where we can partner with other stakeholders, because we know no one can do it alone.
- There are a lot of learnings I want to take back and share with my teammates!
- The place to be to meet people, to progress on the challenges we are facing and meet with our suppliers.
- I came to see how GFSI can be leveraged to provide more consistency in our supply chains, both in food safety practices and culture.
- The conference where food safety professionals can get cutting edge solutions.
- It's fantastic to see that the issues we've identified as being critical are the same for the leaders in GFSI and our counterparts in industry!
- A very good platform to meet people – not only from the food industry but also from academia, government and other stakeholders.
